

In addition to the in-person conference, a Virtual Conference Day will be held to support presenters who are unable to attend in person. All conference registrants have access to the Virtual Conference Day and will receive an email with instructions for logging into the Playback Now virtual conference platform at PlaybackNARST.com. If you do not receive login instructions, please contact experience@playbacknow.com.

An Overview comparing the in-person and virtual conference components is provided on page 3.

Conference Program: The full conference program is posted on the Oxford Abstracts platform at <https://virtual.oxfordabstracts.com/event/44289/program>.

A link to the program is also available on the NARST Conference web page: <https://narst.org/conferences/2025-annual-conference>.

The conference program on Oxford Abstracts will be updated as necessary. A PDF version of the program will be posted on the conference website 1-2 weeks prior to the start of the conference. Subsequent changes will be posted to the conference website in a Program Appendix. Additionally, an abbreviated Schedule-at-a-Glance is available on the NARST Conference website.

What to expect for in-person and virtual participation: Please refer to the table on page 3, which shows differences in what you can expect (in-person versus the virtual day).

CASHLESS HOTEL

Please note that the Gaylord National is a cashless hotel meaning they do not accept cash as a form of payment. Please see below for some commonly asked questions around this policy.

What types of payment does Gaylord National accept?

The resort accepts all major credit cards including its restaurants and spa. Debit Cards are also accepted throughout the resort; however, upon room check-in at the front desk, the guest's bank will place a hold on the debit card for room & tax plus $50 per day for incidentals. This hold will not be released for up to 5- 7 business days after checkout. We recommend using a credit card at check-in to prevent this hold on the guest's cash funds.

Where can a guest visit if they need a change cash into a card to purchase something at the hotel?

There is a Cash-To-Card kiosk located on the lobby level, by the main entrance next to the celebrity service office. This machine issues a Mastercard ranging from as low as $20 to a maximum of $500. There is no fee to use the machine, and if the full amount on the card is not used at the resort, it can be used anywhere a Mastercard is accepted. Cards are not returnable or exchangeable for cash.

What if I need small bills for tips?

The Cash-to-card kiosk also has a bill breaking feature which can be used free of charge.

TRAVEL INFORMATION

Ronald Reagan Washington National Airport is the closest airport to the Gaylord National. An additional airport option is Washington Dulles International Airport.

Bus Station

Franklin St & S Pitt St Station

Subway Station

Branch Ave Metro

Braddock Road Station

Train Station

Amtrak Station ALX

Union Station More information about transportation can be found on the Gaylord National Resort & Convention Center website.

OVERVIEW

Virtual conference event (March 13, 2025)	In-person event (May 23-26, 2025)
	Pre-conference workshops (see program)
Concurrent sessions will be underway for an 8-hour day. Presentations will be delivered in two or three separate Zoom “rooms”. Connection information will be provided in advance. All registrants are welcome to attend.	Paper presentations, symposia, administrative sessions. Up to 14 sessions may be underway in each of 13 concurrent sessions. Bring your own laptop/tablet with your own dongle/connector to an HDMI input.
Posters will be shared during a LIVE poster event in which each presenter will be available to share their work in individual breakout rooms. Additionally, poster presenters may upload their poster into the Oxford Abstracts Poster Gallery, where the poster will be visible to all virtual and in-person attendees. Please contact Paul at paulkemp@narst.org to have your poster added to the Poster Gallery.	Posters will be displayed in a dedicated poster session. The poster boards will accommodate a horizontal layout of up to 36” tall x 48” wide (91 cm x 121 cm). Your poster can also be displayed in the Oxford Abstracts Poster Gallery for viewing throughout the conference. Please contact paulkemp@narst.org to have your poster added to the Poster Gallery. Some administrative sessions will include posters, formatted as above. Posters must be mounted during the break before the session and removed at the end of the session.
Welcome, transition, and closing remarks by President Jerome Shaw and incoming President Jennifer Adams.	Plenary Sessions: Welcome, Presidential address and Keynote, Awards session, Business/Membership Meeting, Closing session
Roundtable discussions will take place concurrently with the Poster session, in a separate Zoom room. All attendees are welcome to listen.	Roundtable discussions. Three Roundtable sessions with a total of 22 separate discussions will be held during the in-person conference.
Committee/RIG/Strand meetings: none are planned during the Virtual Conference Day on March 13th.	Committee/RIG/Strand meetings: Primarily in person, although some groups may opt to have some remote attendance. Please contact your chair to inquire.
	Social events in-person. Several are planned. Please refer to the conference program.

Presiders

Unless a Presider has been designated, the last presenter(s) in a research paper session will act as the presider for the entire session. Please keep track of each presenter's time, keeping in mind that the session may not run overtime. It is helpful to give 5 min, 3 min, and 1 min. warnings to the current presenter. The total session time should be divided equally among the scheduled presentations.

In-Person Conference Presenters

PAPER PRESENTATIONS

Each in-person session is 90 minutes in length. Most sessions have 4 assigned presenters; a few have 3 or 5 assigned presenters.

Presenters must divide the 90 minutes equally. The session may not run overtime.

Please do not encroach on the time of other presenters. You can look up your presentation at Oxford Abstracts to learn whether your session has three, four, or five presenters. Presenters in groups of four can plan for a 15 minute presentation plus 5 minutes for questions and answers, leaving 1-2 minutes between presenters.

Laptops will not be provided at the podium. Each presenter must bring a personal laptop or tablet loaded with their presentation file, and an appropriate dongle to connect to the HDMI connector of the conference room's projector.

ROUNDTABLE PAPERS

Roundtables are intended to be open discussions in which a small group exchanges ideas. Although the focus is on discussion rather than presentation, you will probably want to introduce your work and ideas in an organized way such as a Powerpoint, a video, or a chart or other graphic display. These can be shared on a laptop or tablet, on a website, or as printed material. Please be attentive to time and share the session time equally. The in-person Roundtable sessions will be 90 minutes long.

POSTER PRESENTATIONS

Poster boards and tacks will be provided. The maximum size for a poster is 36" inches (0.9 meter) feet tall and 48" inches (1.2 meter) wide. All posters will be up for the entire poster session. You may wish to post a note stating when you will be available at your poster.

The Oxford Abstracts platform includes an online Poster Gallery. To make your poster visible in the Poster Gallery, it only needs to be attached to your original proposal. Provide a PDF of your poster to Paul Kemp (paulkemp@narst.org) several days prior to the conference.

COMMITTEE, RIG, STRAND MEETINGS

All Committee, Research Interest Group, and Strand business meetings will take place during the in-person conference. Rooms are assigned to each of these meetings - please refer to the conference program.

Virtual Conference Presenters

The all-virtual conference day will be held on March 13th, using the Playback Now platform. Zoom sessions will be held in Zoom Rooms A, B, C. All plenary sessions will be held in Zoom A.

Links to the NARST Virtual Conference Day landing page will be provided to all conference attendees prior to the conference. The landing page will display links to join Zoom Rooms A, B, C.

The Virtual Conference Day is open to all registered attendees (both virtual and in-person). A login will be required to join the Virtual Conference Day sessions.

To view the program for the Virtual Conference Day, please go to <https://virtual.oxfordabstracts.com/event/44289/program>, and click on “Thu 13” at the top of the page.

PAPER PRESENTATIONS

Virtual sessions will be one hour in length, and most sessions will have four assigned presentations. Presenters should plan for a 15-minute presentation including time for questions. Please be aware of the time and do not encroach on the time allotted to other presenters.

Presenters will share their screen during their presentation. Please be ready with your presentation open and ready to begin sharing. You are free to use a presentation template of your choice.

POSTER PRESENTATIONS

A dedicated poster session will be held in Zoom B. It is intended to closely follow the style of in-person poster sessions, in which attendees engage in discussion with several poster presenters. Each poster presenter will be placed in a small-group breakout room, and attendees will be free to move between breakout rooms. We suggest that you be prepared to present your poster more than once during the 1-hr session. Please be prepared to share your screen, and you may also wish to upload your poster as a file in the Zoom chat. This will allow attendees to download the file and adjust the viewing size to their own needs.

The Oxford Abstracts platform includes an online Poster Gallery. Virtual poster presenters are encouraged to display their posters in the Oxford Abstracts Poster Gallery, where it will be visible to both virtual and in-person conference attendees. The poster file must be attached to your original proposal. Please provide a PDF of your poster to Paul Kemp at paulkemp@narst.org several days prior to the conference.

Attendees

IN-PERSON ATTENDEES

We look forward to seeing you at all of the in-person sessions: welcome reception, social events, activities, paper presentations, keynote address, presidential welcome address, roundtables, and poster displays.

Don't forget that in-person registration ALSO gives you access to the Virtual Conference Day!

Check out the online Exhibitors space now under construction on Oxford Abstracts:

<https://virtual.oxfordabstracts.com/event/44289/exhibitors>

VIRTUAL ATTENDEES

Registrants will receive a password connected to the email address used when you registered, which you will use to access the Virtual Conference Day on PlaybackNarst.com. The conference site is under construction. When it is complete, the landing page will display links to the Zoom-based conference rooms.

Questions?

CLOSED CAPTIONING

Question: I am hard-of-hearing, deaf, or a non-native English speaker. Will it be possible for me to have closed captioning in the online sessions on March 13?

Below are the instructions to add the Chrome web browser extension for closed captioning to Zoom. Once attendees do this and then attend the live session, a box will pop up with the live captioning after the speakers start talking.

How to add closed captioning Chrome extension:

1. Go to your Google Chrome browser
2. Copy and paste this: `chrome://flags/#enable-accessibility-live-captions`
3. Under Live Captions, click on "enabled".

Then go to your Chrome settings, and under Advanced Accessibility, "Get Captions for your media" is now an option to toggle on

CHANGING ATTENDANCE

Question: I had planned to attend virtually, but I found out that I will be able to attend in person after all. Can I switch my presentation format back to in-person?

Answer: Yes, you can! We are allowing presenters to change from in-person to virtual presentation. However, your presentation may be changed to a different format (e.g. to a poster), because the conference schedule is already set. You simply need to pay the difference in registration price if you have already registered. (We can help you with that.) Please email paulkemp@narst.org and executivedirector@narst.org

TRAVEL ADVISORY

Question: What is required for me to travel to the US from another country?

Answer: Please check this website for the latest information on travel advisories.

<https://travel.state.gov/content/travel/en/traveladvisories/traveladvisories.html/>

These requirements are subject to change. Keep yourself informed. NARST is not responsible for any individual's travel expenses.